

1

Everybody is equal and must be treated that way.

2

Every child must be able to go to school.

3

We must all be able to access good health through doctors and nurses.

4

Only by ending wars will we be able to live safely.

All animals must be protected and live alongside humans.

We must be free to make our own choices and express our opinions.

We must protect the environment from being destroyed.

We must treat each other with kindness.
